Tag Day For Salvation Army In Antioch Friday

"Doughnut Day", the Salvation Army's Tag Day, will be held Friday, June 10.

Mrs. Robert C. Wilton, 478 First St., representing the Antioch Woman's Club, will serve as chairman for the Antioch area for Doughnut Day. As chairman, she will organize and direct those who volunteer as taggers to help raise funds for the social welfare services the Salvation Army offers to the needy and distressed.

Taggers are needed to volunteer just two or three hours of their time to sell the familiar doughnut-shaped paper tags. Individual taggers, teams of friends and club groups can request assignments by calling Mrs. Wilton at 395-2388.

In Antioch, as in other communities where Salvation

Army Service units are organized, 20 per cent of the funds raised in the local Doughnut Day drive will remain in the communities. These funds will be used to assist needy individuals or families in the community.

These funds will be used to meet local emergencies and to finance unduplicated programs of welfare service or health care. The other 80 per cent of the tag day contributions will help support the area-wide services maintained by the Army.

Among the Salvation Army institutions, services and departments sharing in the proceeds of the Doughnut Day drive are the emergency canteen service at fires and other disasters, Booth Memorial Hospital for the rehabilitation of homeless and handicapped men.

Bus Service Available

Receives News of Death of Sister

Mrs. Helen Herman, Rt. 4, Box 295, Antioch, received news last week of the sudden death of her sister, Miss Ann Curran of 425 S. 8th St., Escanaba, Mich.

Miss Curran died May 30 at her home. Survivors are a sister, Mrs. Herman; one brother, George Curran of Columbus, Ohio; and a sister-in-law, the widow of the late John Curran.

Services were held Wednesday from the Alto Funeral Home in Escanaba to St. Patrick's Church, with the Rev. John Curran, a nephew of the deceased, officiating. Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Miss Curran was known to many Antioch residents, as she frequently visited the Herman family.

NICC Takes Boys Fishing

Members of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club took a group of youngsters from the Central Baptist Children's Home fishing last Saturday. Lunch was provided for the hungry fishermen by Boy Scouts of Troop 86.

Club members who guided the boys on the day's outing were Dick Waters, Elmer Eberman, Roy Pearcey, Bill Brook and Harry Stern.

The happy youngsters took an ice box full of fish back to the home with them.

Holbek Candidate For Re-Election In Precinct 2

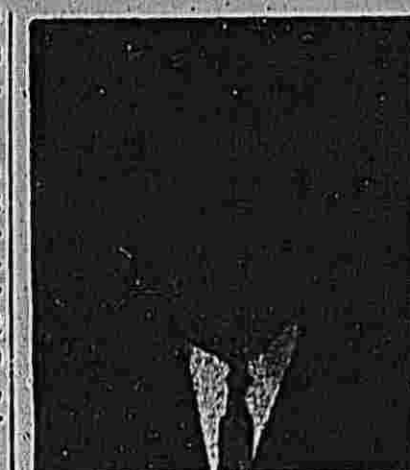

Next Tuesday, June 14, is primary election. And that's the day the precinct committeemen are elected.

In Precinct 2 in Antioch, incumbent Herman Holbek is being opposed by Jim Olson. An article in the Antioch News of May 26 gave our readers information about Jim Olson. For those who don't know Herman Holbek, here's some background information on him.

Herman has been committeeman of Precinct 2 for eight years. At present, he's employed in the County Courthouse in Waukegan as assistant cashier in the treasurer's office.

Herman has lived in Antioch 30 years. He operated the Bon Franklin variety store on Main St. for 20 years. He has three sons, Richard, 24; Hugo, 19, and daughter, Jean, 10 years old.

Herman was one of the founders of the Antioch Rescue Squad and served actively on the squad for more than 20 years. He retired as Captain of the Squad in 1964, but is still an inactive member and occasionally answers a weekend emergency call when needed.

Herman says he thinks he's been a good precinct committeeman. "People call me for help on all sorts of things," Herman said. "Of course, there are a lot of things I can't help them on, but I do what I can."

Approve Addition Reject Tax Increase

Voters approved one school referendum last Saturday and turned down two others.

Emmons School voters approved a $195,000 bond issue for an addition to the school, but turned down a 21c raise in the educational tax. Voters of the Grass Lake School district rejected a proposal for a 21c raise in the educational tax.

One vote was the victory margin for the Emmons addition. One hundred and thirty-seven voters said "No" to the bond issue, 138 voted for it.

The educational tax increase was rejected by a vote of 138-131. This leaves the Emmons school board in the position of building new school rooms, with no extra funds to finance hiring more teachers for the additional classes.

The Emmons addition is planned to include five classrooms, a multi-purpose room, a special education room, an office, a teachers' lounge and additional toilet facilities.

Grass Lake voters were emphatic in their refusal to approve an increase in the educational tax. The vote was 190 against to 50 for the raise, with three spoiled ballots. Grass Lake School completed an addition to the school last fall, and approved a raise in the educational tax two years ago. Robert Hart, school board president, said last week that the district will have a $30,000 deficit by July 1 in the educational fund.

AFS Plans For Next Year

The adults and students in the American Field Service organization (A.F.S.) are busy planning projects for the preparation of making a home for another foreign exchange student during the coming school year.

An application for the student has been sent to the New York office of the A.F.S. The next step is to obtain a home for the student. This is where more help is needed from the community. The organization encourages any family who is interested in taking a student into their home to obtain and fill out an application.

More interested families are desperately needed so that the committee for choosing a home has a variety to choose from. Anyone interested in obtaining an application or in receiving further information may call Mrs. Leslie Sorenson, 395-4017. There is a deadline for submitting the parent applications so an immediate response is needed.

The students from A.C.H.S. who are active in the organization are planning a money-making project which will be announced in the near future. As was mentioned in a previous article, the fund raisers must obtain at least $750 for the transportation expenses of the foreign exchange student. Mrs.

Voting Machines Get Tryout Next Tuesday

Next Tuesday, June 14, is primary election day, and the first test of the county's automatic voting machines.

Polls will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the six Antioch area precincts. Precinct 1 votes at the Antioch Fire Station; Precinct 2, the Antioch Police Station; precinct 3, at Lotus School; precinct 4, at the Grass Lake Scout House; precinct 5, Channel Lake School; and precinct 6 at Emmons School.

County-wide, the races for Republican nomination for sheriff, treasurer and clerk are probably stirring the most interest, with differing segments of the Republican party each endorsing their own state of candidates.

There's a three-way race for the Republican nomination for sheriff, with Norris Froelich, Harold Scheskie and Lloyd DeTienne seeking the office.

Norris Froelich and Harold Scheskie are both employed in the Lake County sheriff's department, both on leave during the campaign. Lloyd DeTienne is Chief of Police of Zion.

Robert J. Milton and Raymond J. Sheahan are both seeking the GOP nod for county treasurer. Milton has been assistant to the State Treasurer, State Auditor and Director of Financial Institutions. He has also held the positions of alderman, township assessor and supervisor. His political record includes 10 years as County Chairman and 8 years as vice-chairman of the State Republican County Chairman's Association.

Sheahan, a Deerfield township resident, was a member of the Lake County Board of Supervisors for the last four years. He was deputy in the treasurer's office of Highland Park for 22 years. He is a precinct committeeman, active in Repub-

Water Treatment Plant Approved

The village board made the first move to treat Antioch water in the hope of reducing or eliminating iron staining at Tuesday night's board meeting.

The board authorized Roger Patzer of Applied Engineering, the village engineer, to install machinery for treating the water with polyphosphate and chlorine. Chlorination of the water is mandatory whenever water is "treated" in any manner.

Patzer said it would be more practical to treat water directly at two of the village wells than to attempt to treat all the water at one central station. Total cost of the equipment was estimated at about $2,700. Maintenance cost is estimated at about $250 per day for the polyphosphate, plus the use of 8 to 10 pounds of chlorine a day.

Patzer said the Board of Health approves the polyphosphate treatment in theory, and listed several towns which have installed the system and found it satisfactory. They include Arlington Heights, Elk Grove Village, Mt. Prospect, Harvard, Huntley, Hebron, McHenry, Mundelein, Wheeling and Zion.

The polyphosphate, Patzer said, sequesters the iron molecules so that they are not deposited. Residents may see no improvement for some time, in some cases a month after treatment starts, he said. This is because the additive is removing iron deposited in the pipes during the past. The condition of the water, for some time, may be worse than at present, he pointed out, depending on the locality and condition of the pipes.

Patzer said the water should be clear and free of the rust that has been the bane of housewives and industry, once the pipes are cleared, however.

Mayor Ray Toft pointed out that if this treatment is not sufficient, a filtration plant may still be necessary. However, he said, treatment of the water with polyphosphate would be necessary in any event before a filtration plant would be workable.

David Nissen, chairman of the sewer and water committee, asked that the board approve his motion to advertise for bids for a building to house the chlorination and treatment equipment. The building, he said, would be 12' x 24', of masonry construction, with a separate room for chlorinating. The motion was approved.

Bids were opened to install new sidewalks on Victoria St. Certified Construction submitted a bid at 75c a square foot; Laursen & Blackman bid 75.2c per square foot. The low bid of Certified Construction was accepted.

Martha Hunter, village treasurer, read the financial report for the fiscal year ending April 30. It will be published in next week's Antioch News.

POINTS OUT DAIRY LITTER

Dr. George Jensen asked the Mayor and village board that action be taken to get Willowdale Dairy to clean up litter around their building, some of which is on village park property adjacent to the Antioch Pool. He pointed out that the dairy has several times been asked to remove the debris, but no progress has been made.

Discarded milk dispensers, refrigerators with doors, constitute part of the mess, he said. Jensen pointed out that these could be dangerous to children, in addition to being unsightly.

The dairy, he said, has built a road from the rear of their building on to the village park property which they use frequently.

Mr. Burke, manager of Willowdale Dairy, said the dairy has removed two trailers since the board asked them to clean it up. They have advertised the discarded refrigerators for sale with no success, but hope to dispose of them soon. He apologized for the appearance of the grounds and said William Millman, present president of the Dairy, has every intention of following through on the cleanup. Burke promised that the condition would be corrected within 30 days.

Dr. Jensen pointed out that a survey made some time ago also showed that part of the Dairy building is on village property. No action has been taken to remedy this.

SEWER CONTRACTS APPROVED

The Mayor and clerk were authorized to sign contracts with M & S Co. in the amount of $24,966.75 and J. R. Myer Co. in the amount of $27,826.32, for sewer main installations. The authorization was contingent on posting of performance bonds.

PARADE PERMIT ASKED

Permission was asked to allow Calvary Baptist to run a parade Saturday, June 11, for their Bible School. The parade, the spokesman for the church said, would consist of ten cars, no marchers, and could move with regular traffic. Mayor Toft asked the spokesman to consult with Police Chief Jack Heick.

The Jaycees were given permission to hold their fourth annual beauty pageant, in cooperation with the Lions Club Chicken Festival, on August 6 and 7.

APPOINTS PLANNING BOARD

Mayor Toft announced appointments to the Antioch Planning Board. They are George Bartlett, chairman, Jerry Rockow, Ernest Glenn, Richard Burnette, William Lahti, John Dupre and Ronald Vos.

MESSAGE OF THE BELLS

Mayor Toft read a request from Governor Kerner, asking that all churches, schools etc., ring bells at 1 p.m. Central Daylight Time on July 4, proclaiming the nation's independence. The custom of ringing bells on Independence Day has been re-instituted across the nation in the last four years, replacing the now illegal fireworks.

Approval was given to purchase 500 maps of the village at a cost of $656. The maps will be sold to anyone who wants them at $2 each.

NEW GARBAGE CANS

Mayor Toft announced that new garbage cans are needed on the village streets. Waste cans are available, he said, for purchase by merchants, with ads on the top. Any merchant interested, he said, can contact Clerk Clarence Shultis.

Clean Up Vacant Lots

Robert Wilton, chairman of the village board committee which is attempting to clean up vacant lots in the village, asks that property owners see that lots are mowed and kept neat.

The village conducted a campaign to keep such lots clean and mowed last year and hopes to make greater progress in the campaign this year.

Calvary Baptist Bible School In June

The church is located at the corner of North Ave. and Parkway in Antioch. Hours of the Bible School will be 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Campaign Contributions

Grass-root politics could undergo a real revitalization if President Johnson's proposals to change election fund-raising laws ever manages to get out of committee and into Congress for action.

The President proposes to draw the average citizen into active participation in politics by allowing a $100 tax deduction for campaign contributions for the average man. That is, you'll be allowed to deduct $100 from your taxable income, not from your total tax. This should encourage a good many middle-income families to make campaign contributions to any political favorites they have.

On the other hand, normally very large contributors, who presumably have some private fish to fry in backing some office-seeker, will be limited to a $5,000 contribution for any one campaign.

The man seeking a high office, then, will have to cease to depend on a comparatively few wealthy men or companies and seek financial support from the masses. He will have to contact, or his workers will, a great many small contributors to get sufficient funds for his campaign. And he will have to seek, and keep, their favor, if he wants to have money enough for his next campaign.

There's no doubt that a great many people will be looking for loopholes in the law, even before it reaches the floor of Congress. And no doubt that some will be found.

For example, is there some provision preventing the soliciting of such funds among the workers in large corporations, or among unions? In soliciting in large plants, word sifts down very quickly that workers may well feel the boss's displeasure if contributions are not made. And unions have been known to put similar pressure on their members. The only way such situations can be avoided is to prevent mass solicitation.

The President is also seeking, in the same bill, to pass a measure providing that each member of Congress must report all gifts over $100. Some senators feel that this law is inadequate, and that Congressmen should report all income and assets.

In view of the fact that every decision made by Congress vitally affects every American citizen, it doesn't seem too unreasonable that the voter should know where each Congressman's financial interest lies. After all, the government is not backward about asking us to disclose all our personal financial dealings.

Both financial participation in political campaigns, and knowledge of the sources of income of Congressmen, could stimulate public interest in elections and aid in their political education. And certainly knowledge that they must disclose their financial dealings would be a deterrent to any Congressman who might otherwise be swayed by arguments other than what's best for the country.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClary

A new expression in the American language is "Rent Supplements." This is a polite way of describing Federally subsidized rent payments.

The program of "rent supplements" was authorized in a measure passed last year by the Congress. However, at that time the Senate refused to appropriate any funds to implement this part of the Great Society program. Recently, a measure appropriating $22 million passed the U. S. House of Representatives by the narrow margin of 192 to 188. All but six Republicans voted against this appropriation of public funds to subsidize the rental payments of middle income families. It appears that the Senate will concur in the House vote.

The rent supplement program is intended to encourage the construction of dwellings and apartments for persons who prefer to rent rather than to buy their living quarters. Under the plan the Federal Government will subsidize the rent paid by qualifying tenants, providing the tenant contributes one-fourth of his income to the total rent.

In the original bill, families could qualify for rent supplements notwithstanding that their income totaled $11,000 per year and they possessed assets up to $25,000. The opposition to subsidizing rent payments of such affluence forced Administration sponsors to accept amendments. For the pres-

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

If there is one constant in politics you can count on during a campaign it is the cry that "Those other guys are tearing down signs more in this campaign than any I have ever seen."

Almost every candidate has the same complaint, but they are quick to deny any insinuation the culprit is the rival candidate.

Rather it is the other candidate's workers who are responsible for the vandalism.

The practice of tearing down a rival's signs does seem a little juvenile, but the moaning and groaning about it is almost as childish.

Recent queries to Republican candidates about their chief deputy selections if they should be elected point up the lack of interest in the current race.

If there were any major issues which the rival candidates could campaign on the selection of a chief deputy would be a minor consideration, but it is being asked at most gatherings where the sponsors have a question and answer session.

None of the candidates has declared himself on his choice, but there has been speculation.

Certainly, if Norris Froelich wins the post Sheriff Charles Larson will be the first pick and despite recurring rumors that Larson plans to retire at the expiration of his term, he will probably accept.

If for some reason Larson does not accept the appointment there is a good change Froelich would turn to Jake Novak, of North Chicago, a highly respected law enforcement official.

Most frequently mentioned as the Chief Deputy appointee of Harold Scheske, if he wins the race have been Coroner Orville (Pat) Clavey and Waukegan Police Captain John Brake, who is on leave from the Waukegan department.

Lloyd DeTienne, Zion Police Chief who is going to surprise a lot of people with the size of his vote in all sections of the county will probably pick someone from the Sheriff's office who is familiar with the personnel and procedures.

It is unlikely that Don Grischaue, of Ingleside, has given serious consideration to a selection.

Some of the precinct committeemen who received their Republican sample ballots last weekend were surprised and irate to find the ballots marked in favor of the candidates endorsed by the Lake County Republican Central Committee.

This shouldn't have come as a surprise because ballot preference was assured the slated candidates right from the start, but some of the committeemen apparently were unaware they had voted to endorse some candidates.

Many candidates have ordered their own ballots for distribution and some of them reveal surprising alignments not entirely in keeping with the central committee endorsements.

Precinct committeemen candidates running against incumbents, of course, are getting their own ballots and these in general are running ent, it appears that payments of rent supplements will be limited to families whose income does not exceed $6,100 and whose other assets do not total more than $5,000. However such families could hardly be classified as poor people. Indeed, the Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development admitted that rent supplements were designed to aid middle-income families—and not the poor.

Some builders and large financiers should benefit from the new program as it will assure payments of rents sufficient to discharge the original indebtedness over a 40-year period. This suggests also that the initial Federal appropriation will have to be continued for at least the next 40 years. It is estimated that the total Federal obligation (with interest) will exceed $5 billion.

It has been argued by the proponents of the rent subsidy program that it will replace public housing. However, public housing has been designed for the poor,

Safety Books Will Soon Be Available

Police Chief Jack Heick has announced that the coloring and bike safety books, intended to help train children in safety rules, will soon be available.

Sixty-seven local firms supported the purchase of the books by purchasing ads. Several of the local stores will have the books available to hand out to customers. The rest of the books will be at the Antioch police station. About 3,000 books will be available in Antioch.

Chief Heick said he had hoped the books would be available before school closed. He will use most of them in next year's safety programs at the schools.

Heick said he will give talks on safety at the local schools, then hand out the books. "I hope the program will bring the kids closer to the police, make them realize they don't have to be afraid of us," Heick said. "In addition to teaching them rules of safety, I hope they'll realize we're here to protect them."

FATHERHOOD

Strong hands laboring honestly His brood to clothe and feed Reverent hands engaged in prayer Teaching spiritual need.

One day the master of these hands Will gaze with heartfelt pride At grown strong and honest sons Laboring at his side. . . .

Continuing the heritage Of all that's kind and good They too reach the status Of beloved Fatherhood.

Wadsworth Rancher Supplies Mink For High Fashions

"Furs for every occasion" is the new battle cry of high fashion furriers and many of the world's foremost designers who shunned mink, chinchilla, and leopard in the past are now turning their efforts toward stunning new creations utilizing the luxury and versatility of fine furs.

Whether designing fur-trimmed lounging pajamas or full-length opera coats fashion designers are "letting themselves go" in creating highly individual jackets, stoles, and coats with high fashion details that make the best use of their luxurious materials.

Leading the comeback for furs is mink, still the most-wanted, most treasured of all fine furs and one of the most sensible of the status symbols.

Designers are fashioning complete mink wardrobes so the smartly dressed woman will have the proper mink garment to wear to the races, for cocktails, a regular night on the town or for those very special dress-up occasions," according to Paul Serdar, of the Imperial Mink Ranch, Wadsworth, Ill., one of the world's leading producers of high fashion mutation mink. Mutation mink, once scorned as "artificial" or "ersatz" are now the most treasured because of the wide range of color available through scientific breeding and because the pelts are much finer and more uniform, according to Serdar.

"The diets of new babies in the finest maternity wards are no more carefully prepared than the diets of mink on our good ranches," according to Serdar who was among the pioneers in producing mutation mink through controlled breeding and improving their quality through scientific nutrition.

A recognized authority on breeding and mink nutrition, the Wadsworth rancher was a diet research technician at Abbott Laboratories in North Chicago when he bought his first mink 30 years ago to carry out experiments in genetics and nutrition.

Within a few months he was devoting full time to mink ranching and today his Imperial Mink Ranch pelts consistently demand top prices at the major fur auctions in New York although he admits, "Our top price is somewhat short of the record $1,100 a pelt paid a few weeks ago at a special Great Lakes Mink Breeders Association (GLMA) sale."

An important factor in the renewed popularity of mink is the high standards for rating mink pelts established by the Mutation Mink Breeders Assn. (EMBA) which maintains rigid criteria in the labeling and grading of mutation mink and the United Mink Producers Association (UMPA) which specializes in natural ranch mink.

"The EMBA quality rating on a garment is the recognized mark of distinction on any high fashion color mink garment and insures the buyer he is getting the quality of fur he is expecting," explained Serdar, a long-time member of the key marketing boards for both associations.

Serdar, who was chairman of the Illinois Racing Commission for eight years under Gov. William G. Stratton, is now entering a new career, that of a fur retailer with the opening of his new salon Harriet's Imperial Furs, on the Imperial Mink Ranch grounds.

Harriet's Imperial Furs will sell creations of the leading furriers as well as custom styled garments featuring Imperial ranch pelts.

New Schedule At Music Center

A new tuition schedule based on the applicant's ability to pay is being used by the Music Center of Lake County, Inc. in its registration this year.

Robert Christensen, director of the not-for-profit cultural institution, said the fee schedule applies to both private and class lessons.

The payment schedule is based on a sliding rate scale according to family income and number of dependents, designed to encourage county residents to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the Music Center.

Christensen emphasizes that persons not wishing to disclose their income will be charged the regular tuition rate.

Registration is going on now at the Center with the largest selection of classes ever offered, said the director. Many courses are aimed at adults and high school students and are being offered at times convenient to them.

Private lessons are offered on all orchestral instruments including voice, piano and classical guitar. Classes include dance, drama, art, theory and music appreciation as well as pre-instrumental training for children 4 to 8 years of age; chorus and ensembles are also available.

Lutheran Faith

Man is created in the image of God.

The first question to ask is "What is God like?" And the answer is—"God is love." So, man is created to love—love in the sense of giving for the sake of another.

But man doesn't love another for the other's sake. Man has misused—broken—the image of God.

The image is restored, however, in Jesus Christ, who did love—who still loves. Christ's accomplishments—his perfection and unbroken image—are given to those who trust Him.

Ill. Bell Announces Rate Reductions & New Services

Proposals for rate reductions, changes and new services, which will make possible more than $8,500,000 in annual savings for Illinois telephone users, were filed May 26 with the Commerce Commission by Illinois Bell Telephone Company. Principal items are cuts in intrastate long distance day station rates and in unit charges for many calls between communities within the Chicago-Suburban area.

The announcement was made by James W. Karber, commission chairman, who said the changes have been negotiated with Illinois Bell and results from the commission's program of surveillance of utility operations. "Since 1961," he pointed out, "negotiated reductions in the company's interstate and intrastate rates have made possible annual customer savings totaling more than $30,000,000."

Some changes, including a reduction in the charge for a color phone from $4 to $2 and establishment of a uniform $6 charge for connecting residence telephones are effective Friday, May 27. Other reductions go into effect July 2.

Rates on many Illinois long distance calls of 37 to 100 miles are reduced by five to 20 cents. Other reductions also apply to some overtime charges.

For station COLLECT long distance calls up to 25 miles, some initial talking period and all overtime charges will be reduced by five cents; the initial talking period will be lengthened from three to four minutes and some overtime periods will go from one to two minutes. Savings on such collect calls of relatively long duration will be substantial, it was pointed out.

Call-Pak and Outer Metropolitan business customers in the outer Metropolitan Area (38 Illinois exchanges in a band extending about 28 to 40 miles from downtown Chicago) also will get one-and two-unit reductions on some of their calls. Business customers will benefit from reductions in rates for the present Wide Area Telephone Service (WATS) and a variety of private line services. WATS customers are assigned outgoing lines over which they place long distance calls to any point in Illinois on a flat charge basis.

A new business service for all Illinois subscribers is an "Inward Wats." The subscriber will be provided with incoming lines over which his customers throughout Illinois can call him at no charge to themselves. Rates for the new service will be the same as those for outward WATS.

The monthly rate for the Card-Dialer, an automatic dialing phone will be cut from $3.50 to $2.50 and its installation charge reduced from $15 to $10.

The monthly charge of $1 per instrument for volume control phones (used by those with impaired hearing or weak voices) will be reduced to 50 cents and the lower charge will cover all of the residence customer's volume control phones. The same reduction to 50 cents will apply to business customers, but on a per phone basis. Handicapped persons in Illinois now use about 15,000 of these phones.

Changes effective Friday, May 27:

All one-time charges for standard color phones are reduced to $2—from $4 for regular desk or wall phones, and from $6.50 or $9 for key phones and Speaker-phones.

A uniform charge of $6 for connecting, changing or moving the location of a phone or residential premises is established. Present charges range from $5 to $7.

These items are eliminated: the $5 charge for changing residence dial service to Touch-Tone, the $1.50 charge for restoring service denied for non-payment and charges for advance wiring of homes under construction for telephone service, when conditions for such work permit.

He is under obligation to manage and invest the trust prudently, so that it produces the highest income consistent with safety. He is obliged to pay to the beneficiaries or to accumulate it for their benefit, as directed in the trust, and to make proper distribution of assets when the trust is terminated.

Is the Trustee Paid? Naturally, the trustee is entitled to receive compensation for his work. An individual whom you name as trustee may not choose to charge you for anything other than his expenses, but he may die or move away, or be unwilling to undertake the responsibility. For these reasons the use of trust companies as trustee has grown popular.

However, the trust arrangement may not be practical for some small properties if a corporate trustee is to be used. The charges may be out of proportion to the value of the trust property.

Tax Savings Through Trusts Trusts need not be connected to a will. They may be set up to begin during the lifetime of the person creating the trust, and may be subject to revocation by him during his life, or irrevocable. Also, the proceeds of insurance policies may be placed in trust.

There are estate tax and income tax advantages to be gained by careful use of the trust device. These advantages are most important in connection with substantial estates, and require the consideration of competent legal counsel for appropriate use.

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

TETANUS KILLS

Tetanus—better known as lockjaw—remains one of the deadliest diseases known to medicine.

Why? Because tetanus germs (bacilli) can be found anywhere. On our bodies and clothing; in the kitchen, garden or office; on cattle, horses and other domestic animals; and in almost any type of soil.

These deadly germs can easily invade such minor injuries as insect bites, tiny splinters, skin abrasions from scratching, and cigarette burns—not just puncture wounds from a rusty nail.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS 5 THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1966

Minor injuries infected with tetanus germs are easily ignored, and an unsuspecting victim may enjoy good health until the symptoms of tetanus appear—muscular stiffness of the jaw, restlessness and irritability.

Eventually the muscular rigidity of the jaw spreads to the neck, back, arms and legs, causing the victim to appear bent backward in the shape of a bow.

As the disease progresses, spasms of the muscles of respiration interfere with breathing and may produce death from asphyxiation.

Once the symptoms of tetanus have appeared, a physician can do nothing to counteract the germs which have reached the nervous system. Treatment then is aimed at preventing further damage, usually by administering tetanus antitoxin.

However, since the disease progresses so rapidly, more than half of those who develop tetanus receive medical treatment too late. The result? Death.

This high mortality rate plus the ease of contracting tetanus from the slightest injury, are more than sufficient reasons for everyone, regardless of age, to be immunized against tetanus.

Yet, more than two-thirds of children between the ages of one and five—and over three-fourths of the adult population in the U. S.—are not protected from tetanus.

With new emphasis on outdoor living... with accidents on the increase... and with tetanus germs in the dust and dirt about us... make sure you and your family are fully immunized.

The vaccine, known as tetanus toxoid, requires two injections. Immunization comes ONLY with the second injection, usually given one month after the first. A booster shot should be taken after one year and, thereafter, every five years to provide continued protection.

The Law Serves You

A Public Service of the ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
WHAT IS A TRUST?

To many people, the word "trust" suggests something undesirable, perhaps as a result of its connection with news stories about "anti-trust laws" or "trust busting," which apply to monopolies.

There is no doubt that a trust, like most things, can be misused. However, the type of trust we refer to here is one of the most effective devices for protecting widows and orphans.

Let's suppose you own a farm. You want to leave it to your wife and children in the event of your death, but you realize that your wife is unacquainted with farming and that it will be many years before the children are old enough to take over.

You can provide in your will that the farm be placed in a trust. In case of your death, title passes to a person called the "trustee," someone designated to manage the farm until the children are capable of taking over. The trustee is obliged to operate the farm and to pay the income of your wife and children, the "beneficiaries" of the trust.

This arrangement continues until the trust is terminated in accordance with directions in your will, and the children take title to the farm and hold it free and clear of the trust.

This same sort of trust arrangement can be used with any type of property, such as stocks, money, or a business. Normally, property is placed into a trust only if it produces income. For example, it would be impractical to put your car or stamp collection into a trust.

Duties of the Trustee

The trustee can be an individual or a corporation. In Illinois a corporation cannot

Diseased Baby Teeth Harm Second Set

By Elizabeth Stewart
Women's Medical News Serv.
 It's a false economy to neglect a child's first teeth on the theory that since they fall out anyway dental care can wait until the permanent teeth come in.
 Dr. Jess McCormick, assistant professor of dentistry at the University of Alabama Dental School, reported recently that a long term study of more than 300 children between the ages of six and nine showed that infected or abscessed baby teeth when neglected produced damaged permanent teeth in 30% of the children. The doctor, who is director of dental services at Children's Hospital there, told Women's News Service that crooked permanent teeth, as well as ones with significant damage, grew in where diseased baby teeth had been.

 He recommended that children pay their first visit to the dentist when they are around 2½ years old, and every six months to a year thereafter. They are not likely to have caries at that age so the initial visit can be a pleasant one with nothing more frightening than a good cleansing and, perhaps, a topical fluoride treatment. Studies have shown, he said, that the average child of three has at least one cavity, so dental care started earlier may head that off.

on gambling," he said, "and even Charles Siragusa has said there is no syndicated gambling in the county."
 "But I think that if you ask the people in any county in the United States you will find that there is some petty gambling going on."

Froelich pointed out that even his chief opponent in the race for sheriff has said gambling is not a problem in Lake County.
 He added that when elected he would continue to send deputies to school, a policy he started some years ago, because he believes that "police officers are professionals who should be familiar with all phases of police work."

He said he knew the value of such schooling because of the fact that he was fortunate enough to attend the Federal Bureau of Investigation Academy in Washington, D. C., the only candidate in the race with this distinction.

The training he received at the academy, he explained, served him in good stead when he was elected sheriff and was able to departmentalize the sheriff's office to improve the standard of law enforcement.

Froelich, the founder of the Lake County Law Enforcement Association, said this was done to promote better cooperation between departments in the county, an accomplished fact.

"The Sheriff's office needs a professional law enforcement officer at its head," he added, "and I believe my background qualifies me for that job."

what is the definition of a private brand?

To some people, it is a retailer's own brand created with selling price first in importance and quality second.

To us at A&P, it's the opposite.

Quality comes first.

Value...the best for the least is the rule for our private brands.

If this wasn't true,

how foolish we'd be to invest, as we have,

literally millions of dollars in processing plants and testing laboratories.

If all we wanted were products we could sell cheaply without quality control, anybody could produce them for us.

The idea of quality private brands isn't new at A&P.

As a matter of fact, it's one of our oldest policies—and by golly, we're proud of it.

Are A&P Private Brands a good reason for shopping A&P?

World Faces 3 Challenges, Says Church President

Erwin D. Canham became the new President of the Christian Science Church recently, as members from around the world convened in Boston for their Centennial-Year annual meeting.

Simultaneously, construction workers one block away were beginning land clearance for the religion's dramatic new expansion of its headquarters area, known as The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

These were the climactic events in this year's observance of the 100th anniversary of the beginnings of Christian Science under the leadership of Mary Baker Eddy in 1866.

To the annual meeting, it brought the biggest attendance in the Church's history, flowing over into the adjacent Civic Auditorium and a nearby theater, where the proceedings were carried on closed-circuit television. An estimated 15,000 people were on hand.

Mr. Canham, who is a well-known journalist and Editor in Chief of The Christian Science Monitor, will serve as President for one year while continuing his Monitor duties. He came to the meeting directly from a major world speaking tour, which he will resume next September in Europe.

"And now we move into the Second Century," began Mr. Canham, speaking before the annual meeting in his new capacity as Church President.

"It is a thrilling moment," but also "urgently challenging," he told the assembly.

"Civilization stands at one of its great crises, perhaps the greatest and most dangerous yet encountered. The world can press forward into the light. Or it can drop back into the darkness."

"False confidence has brought society close to disaster," he said, and summed up three major challenges that must be faced: destruction of civilization by nuclear warfare . . . unchecked population growth, leading to famine . . . moral destruction of society through sensuality and licentiousness."

These challenges "are to be met successfully nowhere except in human consciousness," he declared.

"The battles to be fought and won are in the hearts and minds of humanity, as individuals strive to understand and apply God's laws . . . the truth of being."

One of the specific contributions of Christian Scientists, he stated, is in bringing out the broad possibilities of "spiritual healing" and spiritual awakening. "There is no problem facing mankind today which cannot be solved through spiritual awakening," he added.

A message to the meeting from The Christian Science Board of Directors noted the "radical changes" taking place in humanity's thinking about "the nature of Deity and God's relation to men."

Read by Clayton Bion Craig, new Chairman of the Board, the message asserted that "the 'God is dead' doctrine certainly does not signify the death of God as Jesus knew Him, or even as Abraham, Moses, Jacob, and the prophets knew Him."

Several new steps to improve the church organization and prepare it for "the challenges which lie ahead," were noted by the Directors as well as in reports to the meeting from different church departments.

Two of the most important innovations mentioned were a new International Department and a new Youth Division for better coordination of the Church's growing operations in these areas.

Similar changes have already added four stories to the proposed height of the new Church Administration building announced last year as part of the expanded 15-acre "Church Center" now under construction.

The detailed plans call for a 26-story building and other facilities at a cost of more than $8,000,000, with extensive private development on surrounding church-owned land.

Other events in connection with the Centennial this year included the publication a few weeks ago of a 100-year report on the Church's spiritual healing experience, titled "A Century of Christian Science Healing"; and a recent ceremony at the Smithsonian Institution accepting a privately-donated marble bust of Mary Baker Eddy into the National Portrait Gallery. A tribute from Gallery officials stated that "as the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy has earned such recognition" among those who have made "a significant contribution to the lives of their fellow citizens."

Form Lake County Council On Alcoholism

The Lake County Council on Alcoholism was officially formed at a meeting in Waukegan's Library, Thursday evening, May 28.

Two previous meetings of interested Lake Countians had laid the groundwork for this meeting where a Constitution and By-laws were approved and directors were nominated and elected. Following the general meeting, an executive Committee was chosen by the Board of Directors.

The objectives of the new organization as listed in the constitution are: "To increase public understanding of alcoholism, its nature and treatment; to make this knowledge effective in solving the problems related to it; to promote the tenet that the alcoholic can be helped; and to assist in the development of a program for treatment and care of the alcoholic."

To make these objectives effective by: Education of the community on the problems of the disease, its prevention and the public health aspects of alcoholism.

Establishment of an Alcoholism Information and Referral Center for alcoholics, their families, employers, schools and other groups.

Promotion of out-patient and in-patient facilities for diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation of those affected by alcoholism.

Officers of the new organization are Bruce Wight, president; Rev. L. D. McGladrey, vice president; Mrs. Melvin E. Amstutz, secretary and John B. Perkins, treasurer.

Even new cars frequently need adjustments to insure safe operation. The careful driver will make certain that the lights, brakes, steering and other safety equipment is in good condition before taking possession of that new car.

Endorses Coulson For Central Comm.

James P. Gorter, State Central Committeeman who has resigned his post, is endorsing Senator Robert Coulson for the post.

Gorter says that, after three and one-half years on the state central committee he feels that the job can be far more effectively done by someone who is devoting his full-time efforts to a political career and is regularly in Springfield and second, in establishing sound Party policy the single most important consideration is effective liaison and coordination between the State Central committee and elected officials.

Gorter says Coulson will be able to handle the job effectively because of his long experience in State government; because politics with him is a full-time job, and because of his present position of legislative leadership as Assistant Majority leader in the Senate.

A good health rule is to have a physical examination twice a year. This twice-a-year rule should also apply to your car. The defensive driver will make sure that his brakes, lights, tires, signals, and horn are in good condition.

Varsity Team Play .500 Ball

Coach Bill Seemann released season statistics for his team's efforts this year and for the first time in many years the Sequoia's aren't writing up their record in red ink. True, they didn't have a winning season, but neither was it a losing one. Seemann's Sequoia's played .500 ball for the year winning seven and losing seven.

Wayne Channel was the winning pitcher for Antioch with three victories to his credit. Channel pitched 27 innings, gave up 30 hits, 27 walks, struckout 43 and ended with an earned run average of 3.01.

Mike Redden was the leading batsman for the Sequoia's, hitting at a .323 clip for the season. Redden collected 11 hits in 34 times at bat including two doubles, a triple and one homer.

Coach Bill Seemann has operated all season with a young team and is figuring to be a conference contender next season. His all sophomore infield of Mike Redden, Greg Drije, Steve Miklautsch and Al Alexander will all be back, and they'll be a little faster, a little bigger and a little smarter.

Also back next year will be Marni Baker, Rich Bitek, Dick Peterson, Bob Hochmuth, Len Clark, Rich Stroner, Chip Tanner and John Basile.

Popular Indian Pageant In Elgin In June

Six nights in June, around a glassy lake on the reservation at Camp Big Timber, five miles northwest of Elgin, the noble red man will come into his own.

Elgin's famed "Song of Hiawatha" Pageant will present the 39th edition of its colorful spectacle June 9, 10, 11 and 16, 17, and 18, two weekends. The American Indian show has been presented each year since beginning in 1928.

Each evening performance begins at 8:25 to take advantage of the natural sunset. As the performance begins Indians on horseback can be seen in the distance, silhouetted against the setting sun. Life a century ago in an Indian village can be seen on both sides of the lake. Children are playing, women are grinding meal, washing clothing at the edge of the lake and other domestic chores common in an Indian village. More than 100 Indians are seen during the opening scene. This Indian classic takes the audience through the various phases of the life of Hiawatha. As a baby, a boy, a young man and on to his departure from his people as he sails away into the blazing sunset. Throughout the pageant highlights of Hiawatha's life are dramatized.

One of the most colorful is Hiawatha's wedding feast when the many guests entertain each other with stories and dances. During the feast there are 90 dancers performing at one time, each dressed in an elegant authentic costume.

Carl Pallasca, originator and still director and narrator of the pageant has insisted, over the years, that everything used in this portrayal of the first Americans be authentic. Each year sage brush is shipped from Colorado to the pageant and even the wood used in the fire in "Old Nokomis" lodge is pinon from the west.

Earl Old Person, Tribal Chairman of the Blackfeet Indian Nation, is Indian consultant to Song of Hiawatha. He travels from Browning, Montana, to Elgin each June to participate. Old Person has been connected with the pageant almost 30 years.

A special youth night has been arranged for Thursday, June 9. Boy Scout, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and other youth groups will be admitted for half price. Dancers of the pageant lead the famous Orange Bowl parade in Miami, Fla., in 1964 and have been featured in many parades and events across the country. They will again be part of "Day in Old Milwaukee" Circus parade July 4th.

Song of Hiawatha is a family show. There is ample free parking space and much authentic Indian goods from western reservations is for sale on the pageant grounds. Refreshments are available for those who wish lunch before the evening show.

Battle Of Marksmen In Jack Rabbit Shoot

By Harry H. Stern

The first in the McHenry Sportsmen's Club new series of Jack Rabbit Shoots was run off Saturday, June 4, at their trap range on the west side of Pistakee Bay.

An enthusiastic group of nimrods got their shots in, and when the gun smoke cleared away there were three ties for 1st place and three ties for 2nd place in the Class B shoots.

The class A event was a nip and tuck battle between Ed Koepke, Gaynor, Camp and Alepra, and the outcome was not decided until the last shot had been fired. Koepke captured top gun and high run honors.

In all, three-fourths of the competing shooters carried home varying slices of the purse, due to the Lewis scoring system which was in effect, in itself a guarantee that less proficient shooters can compete on equal terms with the "hot-shots".

The next scheduled Jack Rabbit shoot is slated for Saturday, July 2, at 2 p.m. In between, there will be a Blue Grass Meat shoot on Sunday, June 12, starting at 10 a.m., with 4-prize, 3-prize and 2-prize shoots on the program.

Sunday, June 26, the club will hold their first Black Bird Shoot, with the opening gun going off at 11 a.m. Steaks, chickens and shooting components are the rewards for the winners. The box score of Saturday's Jack Rabbit shoot:

Class A—
Edward Koepke, 24-23-47
McHenry
George Gaynor, 25-21-46
Antioch
Long Run—Ed Koepke, 33

Coach Comments On Sequoit Track Squad

By Roger Andrews

The 1966 track season started on March 14, with 74 boys signing up. During the season, several boys quit, or were dropped for disciplinary reasons. At the season's end there were 50 men; 3 seniors, 20 juniors, 13 sophomores, and 14 freshmen.

VARSITY SQUAD RECORD
The varsity squad was a real surprise, as the team finished the season with a 7-3 record. The track team remained undefeated in conference dual and triangular meets for the third straight year. They extended their unbeaten record to 20 consecutive victories. In the last four years the varsity has a conference record of 27 victories and one loss.

OUTSTANDING MEMBERS
This year's varsity includes 15 award winners. They are: Bill Sheldon, Tyrone Walls, Jim, Litchfield, Bob Schenk, Wayne Hanson, Tom Wojnowiak, Bob Murphy, Blaine Backman, Don Zeman, Chuck Bista, Bill Greear, Tom Doolittle, Glen Otfedahl, Fred Gras and Jim Nauseda.

Other members of the varsity who contributed to the great success of this team are Ed Fox, Dave Comstock, Alan Osterlund, Dave Evink and Tom Aerne.

Elected to team honors by their teammates were: Tyrone Walls—Most Valuable; Bob Schenk—Captain, and Don Zeman—Most Improved.

SCHOOL RECORDS BROKEN

During the season, three school records were broken. Jim Litchfield set a new 440 yard dash record of 52.3, breaking the record held by Jim Effinger and Tom Tangle. Bob Schenk set a new high jump record of 6'

1", breaking his own record of 6'4" and Tyrone Walls broke the shot put record with a toss of 56' 1". The record was held by Bob Flood.

The two outstanding individual achievements came in the state district track meet. Jim Litchfield placed 5th in the 880 yd. run, missing a trip to the state meet by a couple of seconds, and Tyrone Walls placed 4th in shot put and did qualify for the state track meet.

CONFERENCE WIN

The greatest team effort came in the last meet of the season, the conference track meet. The varsity won the conference for the 2nd straight year. Antioch scored 67 points, their nearest competitor being Lake Forest with 49 points.

On Saturday afternoon, May 28, the Antioch varsity track received their conference trophy, putting a fitting climax to a highly successful season. This season's success story was earned through hard work and desire. Congratulations, men, and may the future be filled with more successes.

THE FROSH-SOPH TEAM

During the 1966 track season, 13 sophomore and 14 freshman men finished the season. These young men did an excellent job compiling a season record of 5 wins - 5 losses and a third place finish in the conference meet. The Frosh-Soph squad completed their fourth year in a row with a winning season in conference competition. Their record for the last four years is 24 wins - 4 losses.

finishing the season were Lynn Barthel, Bob Blaggi, Dave Camp, Chuck Denman, Gary Doolittle, Don Gaa, Don Jackson, Fred Koch, Don Koenig, Jim Maler, Jerry Martin, Bob Sheldon, Mike Tumminello, and Paul Yuska.

During the season there were several outstanding individual performances as 4 school Frosh-Soph records were broken or tied. Bill Effinger set a new record in the 880 yard dash with a time of 2:07.9 breaking Blaine Backman's record. The 880 yd. relay team of Dave Camp, Jim Roberson, Dan Smith and Paul Yuska, tied the record set by Jim Litchfield, C. Bista, Fred Gras, and Bill Sheldon, with a time of 1:39.4.

Russ Barthel was the only individual to win a 1st place in the conference meet, running the 180 yd. low hurdles in 21.7 to break the school record set by Ken Truelsen. Ken Truelsen, by the way, in his senior year, placed 3rd in the State meet in the 180 yd. low hurdles.

Bill Nader threw the discus 124' 9 3/4" to break Wayne Hanson's record in the discus.

There is an excellent group of young men in the track program. These men will in the next few years break more records and also help to keep Antioch on the winning way. Congratulations are extended to these men and best wishes to them in future season.

Hold Meeting To Discuss Park Dist.

Consideration of a Park District for Antioch went forward June 2 as representatives of various Antioch organizations met to hear Charles Paxton, Director of Recreation of Zion, discuss the growth of Zion's Park District since 1947.

The meeting was held at the Rescue Squad building. Mr. Paxton gave the group some information on Zion's summer program, Little League diamonds and their cooperation with the schools.

The next meeting of those interested in a Park District for Antioch will be June 29.

FISHIN' TIPS

Why does "the big one" get away? Often because hooks aren't sharp enough. No matter how sharp a hook is when you buy it, its point dulls with use. So carry a small honing stone to touch up the point to needle-sharpness. The sharper the point, the better chance you'll have of sinking the barb securely and landing "the big one."

Large hooks, such as often are used in salt water fishing, may need to have their points touched up with a file, whether or not the honing stone is used afterwards. Get a little file with small teeth to carry in your kit. Check the point of each hook before each use, and touch it up when necessary.

CASPER DEFENDING WESTERN OPEN TITLE

Not since Sam Snead doubled up in 1949-1950 has anyone successfully defended his Western Open golf title. Billy Casper will try to swing the trick this year. He won at Tam O'Shanter last year with Juan (Chichi) Rodriguez and Jack McGowan tied for second. The 1966 Western Open will be held at Medinah Country Club's No. 3 course June 23-26.

WESTERN OPEN PAYS SCHOLARSHIPS

Proceeds from the $100,000 Western Open golf championship will go to the furtherance of the famed Chick Evans caddie scholarship program sponsored by the Western Golf Association. This fall there will be approximately 600 Evans Scholars attending 28 colleges throughout the nation, including some 195 former Chicago-area caddies.

FIRST AID FOR RODS

If a ferrule becomes loose on your fishing rod, here's an easy way to fix it. Rotate the ferrule over a lighted can of "Sterno Canned Heat" to soften the cement. Pull off the ferrule; recement the end of the rod, and reseat the ferrule. This also is a good way to change the points on arrows, such as removing a damaged arrow-head from its shaft and putting on a new one — or changing target points to hunting tips, and vice versa.

feature. Likewise, Cosman had to come all of the way from the back to capture the main event. The demolition derby was highlighted by two fires, a head-on crash and twelve wrecked cars before Dutch Anderson emerged the winner.

Reimer Roars to Waukegan Wins Sunday

Defending modified stock car champion, John Reimer, roared to two more victories at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night. Reimer grabbed the third heat and then returned to open up a nice lead in the 30-lap feature. Jack Ester won the 20-lap late model feature by only a few feet over Dennis Burgan. Burgan and Reimer are now the point leaders.

Ed Pelsaek lead for the first seven feature laps with traffic heavy behind him. Reimer worked through the crowd the swiftest and passed Pelsaek in the 8th lap, almost simultaneously with a spectacular spill in the backstretch. Bill Carey and Homer Ansell tangled midway down the back chute. Ansell shot high into the air, landed, slid into the wall in a shower of sparks, but continued, finishing 12th. Carey stopped in the infield with a badly damaged racer.

A heated battle for fourth spot throughout the final 15 laps among Roger Otto, Bill Ansell and Whitey Harris. Ansell raced high on the track lap after lap, and finally moved in on Claude Potter to challenge for third in the final laps... but a last turn scramble dropped this "Racine Ansell" back to fifth. Junior Dodd drove a fine race to finish second to Reimer.

Ray Bush jumped off to the early late model feature lead, but Ken Becker assumed the top spot in the fourth lap. Four laps later, Jack Ester charged past Becker and charged to open up a comfortable lead. In the sixteenth lap, Burgan too second spot away from Becker and rapidly closed in on Ester. Finally, as the white flag flew, Burgan was right on Ester's bumper, but Ester drove a fine last lap to ward off all of Burgan's challenges.

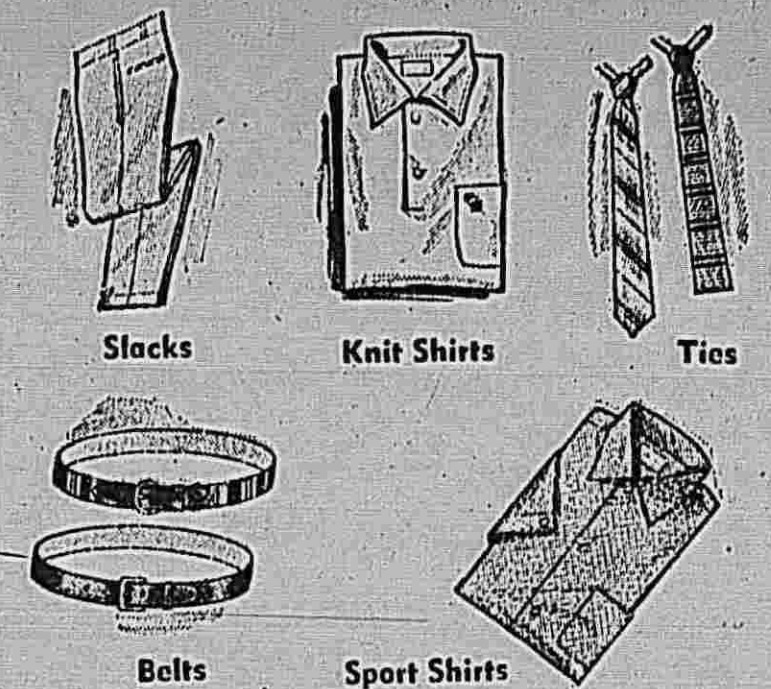

Preliminary events found Roger Otto, Bill Ansell, Bob Anzinger and Billy Goeden coming through with wins, while Burgan, Bush and Eddy Jones took the early late model honors.

There will be late model stock car racing next Saturday night at the Waukegan Oval, topped by a 25-lap feature and another large demolition derby. Sunday night's modified and late model card will be climaxed with 50 laps of feature racing, 30 among the modifieds and 20 among the late models. Then on Thursday night, June 23, the world famous Jole Chitwood Thrill Show will perform at the Waukegan Speedway.
